THE PRESIDENT'S COLONIZATION PLAN. The President has already received twenty or thirty responses from respectable colored men of African descent in different par s of the country to his projection that their race should set up for America. These letters come from Boston, New-York, Polisdelphia, Michigan, and the always accessible to the public. Western States, and are, in most cases, well witten, indicating that their authors are educated men, and all purport to come from beads of families.

Three of lour are from cle gymes. All but one of the writers are in favor of the scheme, and propose abandoued pr perty, consisting of stores, tents, were allowed to carry off their horses and sideto take their families and property to the place se lected by the President. One letter, badly specied and written, but sharp and almost impertment argues with the President, attempts to confute his reasoning, and prop see that men of Caucasian instead of these of African descent be experted.

Although the President has thus within a week ascured the number of colouists with which he said he should be content to begin the experiment, it is not probable that any steps for their congruence will be York City.
